

The Hong Kong and Macau Association for European Studies

In conjunction with

Department of Government and International Studies

HONG KONG BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Dr Didier Chabanet

Research Fellow

French National Institute for Transport and Safety Research will give a seminar on

Employment Policy and Unemployed Movements in the European Union

11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., 21 October 2004 (Thursday)

Room 802, David C. Lam Building

Hong Kong Baptist University

Tea and coffee provided

All are welcome!

*Dr. Didier CHABANET, Research Fellow, French National Institute for Transport and Safety Research. Dr. Chabanet holds a Doctorate from the Political Studies Institute in Lyon. He has been Research Fellow at St Antony's College, Oxford, and at the European University Institute, Firenze. He is actually co-investigator (with Giugni Marco, Lahusen Christian, Della porta Donatella, Linders Annula and Statham Paul) of a study for the European Commission, The Contentious Politics of Unemployment in Europe: Political Claims-making, Policy Deliberation and Exclusion from the Labour Market.